Free/Reduced-Price Meal Benefits Information for School Year 2010/2011

To apply for your family's children to have free breakfast and lunch or reduced-price (30¢) breakfast and (40¢) lunch, please take the following steps:

1. Watch for a 2010/2011 Meal Benefits Application to arrive at your home address through the U.S. Postal Mail during the first week of July. (Only 1 application needed for all school children in your household who attend Charlotte County Public Schools.)

- Need to update your address?
  - Please call the Food and Nutrition Services office: 941-575-5400 ext. 179
  - AND notify your child's school of your address change TODAY!

2. Listen for a ParentLink phone call in early July to remind you to complete a new Application to help your child(ren) become eligible for free or reduced-price meal benefits.

- Didn't receive an Application in the mail?

You can download one from the district's website: www.yourcharlotteschools.net

3. Complete the Application and

Since we receive thousands, send yours in EARLY!

- mail the completed, signed Application to:

Champ's Café

School Food and Nutrition Services Dept.

1016 Education Avenue

Punta Gorda, FL 33950

or return the completed, signed application to your child's school

Use child's legal full name (from birth certificate), not their nickname.

4. If your family IS approved for free or reduced-price meals for your child, your notification letter will be mailed to the address you indicated on the application.

5. If your family is not approved for meal benefits, you will be notified. Please apply again:

- when your family's income changes OR the number of people in your household changes

Yes, families may apply for meal benefits more than once during the school year!
